

Lonnie Frisbee

Charismatic Homosexual LSD Inspired False Prophet At Calvary Chapel

Lonnie Ray Frisbee was an American Charismatic evangelist and self-described "seeing prophet" in the late 1960s and 1970s. He maintained a hippie appearance and struggled with homosexuality. He was notable as a minister and evangelist in the signs and wonders movement of the 1970s and 1980s. Wikipedia

Born: June 6, 1949, Costa Mesa, California, United States

Died: March 12, 1993, Orange County, California, United States

Spouse: Connie Frisbee

Books: Not by Might Nor by Power: The Great Commission, Not by Might Nor by Power: Set Free: Set Free

Frisbee led a Wednesday night Bible study at Calvary Chapel and the church exploded from 150 to thousands in attendance and eventually became an entire association of churches.

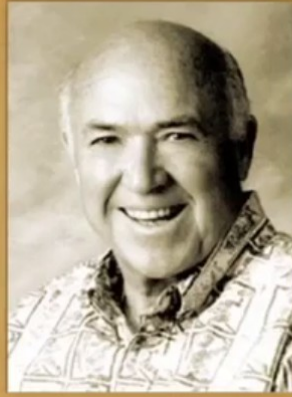

"With his long brown hair, long craggily beard, dusty clothing, scent of Mary Jane [marijuana] and glint of his last LSD trip in his eyes, he showed up on Chuck Smith's doorstep" (Matt Coker, OC Weekly, March 2005).

The foundation was not Biblical.

Chuck Smith has been called "the father of Contemporary Worship."

But he started Calvary Chapel on the basis of a false "prophecy."

Chuck Smith's wife had a "prophecy" that God was going to use Frisbee in a great revival.

Mesmerized by a charismatic Jesus hippie named Lonnie Frisbee, Calvary Chapel, led by Chuck Smith, baptized thousands of hippies. They kept their long hair, immodest clothes, rock & roll, and sensual party thinking.

His "vision" that God was going to use him to lead masses of young people was experienced when he was high on LSD.

Lonnie Frisbee had "turned to Jesus" through LSD trips. He continued to use drugs and practice homosexuality.

He would "party on Saturday night" and preach on Sunday.

We have seen that Lonnie Frisbee, one of the fathers of contemporary worship music, remained a homosexual to the end of his life and died of AIDS.

Frisbee performed "signs and wonders," particularly "ministering" spirit slaying.

Lonnie
Frisbee
the LSD Prophet

BEWARE! Contemporary Worship is the foreign spirit of the heretical Jesus People movement.

The Jesus rock goes hand-in-hand with the charismatic movement.

The emphasis in both is on emotions and experiences more than solid Bible doctrine.

Here is Lonnie Frisbee with Kathryn Kuhlman, a woman who thought God had called her to preach.

But the Bible plainly states that God DID NOT call her. She was deceived by her feelings.

Mesmerized by a charismatic Jesus hippie named Lonnie Frisbee, Calvary Chapel, led by Chuck Smith, baptized thousands of hippies. They kept their long hair, immodest clothes, rock & roll, and sensual party thinking.

Here is Lonnie Frisbee with Kathryn Kuhlman, a woman who thought God had called her to preach.

But the Bible plainly states that God DID NOT call her. She was deceived by her feelings.

Chuck Smith's wife had a "prophecy" that God was going to use Frisbee in a great revival.

Thousands of hippies were baptized.

Lonnie Frisbee had "tuned to Jesus" through LSD trips. He continued to use drugs and practice homosexuality.

He would "party on Saturday night" and preach on Sunday.

LONNIE FRISBEE

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF A HIPPIE PREACHER

FROM THIS

TO THIS

Frisbee died in 1993 at age 43 of AIDS.

Frisbee died in 1993 at age 43 of AIDS.

Frisbee's funeral was held in the heretic Robert Schuller's Crystal Cathedral.